

LiveScribe Real-time Transcription Service

IMPROVE CYCLE TIME

FROM MONTHS TO DAYS

LiveScribe[®] is Enservio's phone-based transcription service that enables you to create an audio recording of contents in real time as you make your way through the loss site. Ideal for large losses, all you need is a hands-free cell phone and an extended life battery - and we'll do the rest. Receive your transcribed inventory in MS Excel format within one business day of the session, and then have the option of utilizing Enservio's expert valuation service to complete the claim process.

Benefits include:

- Dramatic cycle time improvements from months to just a few days
- Guidance in capturing the important price driving factors promotes accurate replacements
- Easy to understand settlement report makes policyholder collaboration easy
